

A clear solution for farmers

CATCHMENT SENSITIVE FARMING

Hampshire
Woodfuel
Co-operative

Make hedge management work for your business & the environment

Tuesday 27th March 2018

Organic Research Centre (ORC) at Elm Farm Research Centre, Hamstead Marshall, RG20 0HR

Tea & Coffee from 9.30am

10.00 Torz Brown – Campaign for the Farmed Environment (CFE)

What is CFE and why manage your hedges?

10.15 Sally Westaway & Jo Smith – ORC

Hedge Management Planning, Projects & Benefits

10.45 William Hamer – Forestry consultant, Hampshire Woodfuel Co-op Ltd

Hedge, Woodland and Woodfuels management to demonstrate business benefit

11.15 Luke Everitt – Woodland Trust

Opportunities for funding

11.30 Karen Davies – Catchment Sensitive Farming

Hedge & Woodland management put in context with Environmental Stewardship Schemes

11.45 Farm walk & discussion session - past, present & future management of hedges & short rotation coppice on Elm Farm

13.00 Sandwich lunch

Project information & videos of coppicing will be available during lunch

14.00 Finish and depart

To book your free place, contact Torz Brown

torz.brown@panbio.co.uk

07786 705114 Or book through <https://web.nfuonline.com/cfeevents>