

ORGANIC RESEARCH CENTRE – ELM FARM

OPEN DAY - JULY 16TH 2010, 10am-5pm

REGISTRATION FORM

To help us assess demand for this event, and allocate appropriate resources to different activities, please complete and return this form in advance. Entry to the open day is free, but donations are always welcome!

Title:	First Name:	Last Name:
Organisation:
Address:
						Postcode:
Email:
Telephone:
Areas of particular interest (please tick as many as you like):
Arable	<input type="checkbox"/>	Horticulture	<input type="checkbox"/>	Livestock	<input type="checkbox"/>	Business/trade	<input type="checkbox"/>
Other	<input type="checkbox"/>	Please specify:
Workshops (please tick as many as you like):
Soil assessment	<input type="checkbox"/>	Compost making	<input type="checkbox"/>	Conversion to organic farming	<input type="checkbox"/>	Legumes	<input type="checkbox"/>
Consumer attitudes and market trends	<input type="checkbox"/>	100% organic feed for pigs/poultry	<input type="checkbox"/>	Eco-agroforestry	<input type="checkbox"/>	Biodiversity	<input type="checkbox"/>
Farming advisory clinics	<input type="checkbox"/>	Energy advisory clinics	<input type="checkbox"/>	Visit to arable trial site at Sheepdrove	<input type="checkbox"/>	Visit to arable trial site at Dove's Farm	<input type="checkbox"/>
Pests & diseases	<input type="checkbox"/>	Crop research priorities	<input type="checkbox"/>	Livestock research priorities	<input type="checkbox"/>	Other research priorities – please specify:	<input type="checkbox"/>

Any Special Requirements (i.e. wheelchair access, etc) (please give details):

Post, e-mail or fax this form to:

The Organic Research Centre
 Elm Farm,
 Hamstead Marshall,
 Newbury, Berkshire, RG20 0HR.

E-mail: elmfarm@organicresearchcentre.com

Fax: 01488 658503

Telephone: 01488 658279