

ELM FARM Summer Festival

Hamstead Marshall

11am-10pm, Saturday, July 9th 2011

11am—5pm: Organic and Local Food, Craft and other Stalls, Entertainments and much more!

Bar—Cakes & Refreshments—Hot & Cold Food available throughout the day

5pm—10pm: Parish Party in the Paddock with Live Music and Hog Roast

Sponsored by the new White Hart opening on 20th July

An Organic Research Centre and Hamstead Marshall Village joint event

Good for Nature, Fun for the Family!

ELM FARM Summer Festival

Programme of Events

Food and Craft Fair (11am–5pm)

Entrance £2.50 per adult, children under 16 free

Food in the Courtyard and Barn	Entertainment in the Paddock	Country Crafts in the Garden
• organic food stalls	• small animal farm	• traditional crafts
• local produce stalls	• face painting	• woodworkers
• hot grill	• bug hunt	• textiles
• workshops	• bouncy castle	• ceramics
• demos	• live music	• candles
• locally made cakes	• traditional skittles	• jewellery
• refreshments	• games	• handmade baskets

Parish Party in the Paddock (5pm–10pm)

Live music – Got it Covered – and more

Bar, Hog roast & BBQ

Dogs are not permitted on the Festival site. Please leave your dogs at home on 9th July as it is not safe to leave them in parked cars. At other times, you and your dog can enjoy the Elm Farm trail, but please keep your dog on a lead as this is a working farm.

The Organic Research Centre, Elm Farm, is a registered charity (281276) working to develop sustainable food systems based on organic and agro-ecological principles. Donations to support the work of ORC, including the Elm Farm Summer Festival, can be made via our 2011 Appeal at www.organicresearchcentre.com.

Progressive Farming Trust Ltd trading as the Organic Research Centre – Elm Farm.
Company registered in the UK no. 1513190. Registered charity no. 281276.
Elm Farm, Hamstead Marshall, Newbury RG20 0HR. Tel: 01488 658298
www.organicresearchcentre.com; elmfarm@organicresearchcentre.com