

Making trees work for livestock

Wednesday 21st November
10.45am - 3.00pm

Longnor Village Hall, Shropshire
SY5 7PP

Join us to find out how trees and woods can benefit your farm, livestock and back pocket, including practical advice and a farm visit.

© Brian Robert Marshall

Day to include:

Benefits of integrating more trees on livestock farms > tree & stock management > funding > timber and heating opportunities > Q&A's > organic lunch > farm walk

Book online: www.soilassociation.org/shop

Book over the phone: 0117 914 2400

Tickets £10+VAT

Making trees work for livestock

10.45am: REGISTRATION
Teas & coffees served

11.00am: WELCOME
Chair and Tim Downes - farmer

11.10am: INTEGRATING TREES INTO FARMING SYSTEMS
Mike Townsend - Senior Advisor Woodland Trust

11.30am: NEW APPROACH - BIOENERGY PRODUCTION AND LIVESTOCK
Dr. Katharine Leach - Organic Research Centre

11.50am: WHAT SUPPORT THE WOODLAND TRUST CAN PROVIDE
John Tucker - Woodland Creation Director

11.55am: WOOD FUEL EXPLAINED
Ewan Bent - Commercial Director of Midlands Wood Fuel Ltd

12.10am: QUESTION & ANSWERS

12.30pm: LUNCH

1.30pm: FARM WALK
Tim Downes and John Tucker will lead a farm walk showing how an on farm tree survey can work for you.

Held by kind permission of the Downes family

